

ONLINE SEMINAR ON THE METHODS OF TEACHING RUSSIAN AS FOREIGN LANGUAGE : MOSCOW - ALMATY

Teachers and foreign students of the Department of Philological specialties for foreigners and preparatory training took part in online seminars on ethno-oriented methods of teaching Russian as foreign language, which held at the Moscow State Regional University (MSRU, Russia): on 31 October (for Vietnamese speakers), on 1 November (for Turkic languages speakers) and on 2 November (for Iranian languages speakers).

The seminar was broadcast in such countries as Russia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Ossetia, Vietnam, Iran, Afghanistan. More than 5 thousand participants listened to the seminar.

On 31 October, the 2nd course master student of Abai KazNPU Nguyen Thanh Chung made a report on the social and cultural and academic adaptation of Vietnamese students studying Russian in Kazakhstan (supervisor - Prof. Balgazina B.S.). His presentation aroused lively interest among listeners of the online seminar. At the end of the report, all the listeners applauded to him.

On 2 November, teacher of the department Assoc.prof. Nurakhunova G.M. and Ass. prof. Aytkazina T.T. made a report on the problems of teaching Russian to Iranian-speaking students.

The listeners of the preparatory group Sydiykh Khuseynov (Tajikistan) and Djalali Saadat Arife (Iran) told about their studies at Abai KazNPU.

