

ROUND TABLE "RUSSIAN LANGUAGE UNITED US"

On November 14, 2016, the Department of Philological Disciplines for Foreign Citizens and Pre-University Preparation of the Preparatory Faculty organized and conducted a round table "We were united by the Russian language". The guests at the round table were: Sergey Vladimirovich Malenko Head of the CIS Department of Rossotrudnichestvo, and Irina Vladimirovna Pereverzeva Consul of the Consulate General of the Russian Federation in Almaty.

At the round table, foreign students from Lithuania, Vietnam, South Korea, China, 1-3 courses and students of preparatory groups spoke. The students spoke about the role of the Russian language in the world, presented a dramatization of the Russian folk tale, read poems of Russian poets, showed the traditions of hospitality of the Kazakh and Russian people.

The guests welcomed the participants of the round table, noting the particular importance of learning languages not only for modern man, but in the development of scientific, cultural and economic relations between different countries. Malenko S.V. and Pereverzeva I.V. donated to the department and students educational and fiction literature in Russian.

Also Pereverzeva I.V. congratulated freshmen and handed them student cards.

In conclusion, a free discussion was organized, in which students and trainees asked questions to representatives of the Russian consulate.
