

A master class was held with the participation of Beksultan Maksat, a member of the Union of Artists of the Republic of Kazakhstan

On March 20, organized by the Department of Art Education by the Institute of Arts, Culture and Sport, a member of the Union of Artists of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Maksat Beksultan, held a master class for teachers and students. At the same time, the teachers of the department, headed by the senior curator E. Asembayuly and the teachers of the department, emphasized that the master class of Maksat Beksultan is of great importance from the educational-methodical and educational side. Maksat Beksultan told students about his life experience and practice. A master class at the highest level.

