

History of the chair

In 2009 there was a reorganization of the Faculty of Philology, as a result of which the linguists, writers and Methodists, as in the years of education KazPI are combined into a single Chair of Linguistics and Literary Studies, headed by its well-known Kazakhstan scholar and literary critic, Doctor of Philology, Professor Saule Dzhunusovna Abisheva, graduate of KazPI named after Abai in 1976. In 2011, the chair of Linguistics and Literary renamed. At the moment - it is the chair of Russian Language and Literature, which directs the Doctor of Philological Sciences, Professor S.D. Abisheva.