

Undergraduates of the 2nd course on internship in Poland

From December 1 to December 11, 2018, 9 undergraduates of the 2nd course of the Russian Language and Literature Chair undergo compulsory foreign internships in the Pomeranian Academy of Slupsk (Poland).

Classes and consultations with professors of the Institute of Neophilology of the Pomeranian Academy, acquaintance with the educational system of Poland and its culture, expansion of philological horizons, new ideas for scientific work - all this becomes an important stage of the master`s program.

